By Expulsion:

65. A Member ceases to be a Member if expelled as a result of disciplinary action in accordance with Article 13 or for any of the following reasons:
 - a. The Member has been convicted of an indictable offence or an offence of such a nature that in the eyes of Club members and the public, brings the club into disrepute, or is likely to do so; or
 - b. The Committee makes a decision pursuant to an application to terminate a Membership.

Seeking Redress:

66. A Member may appeal to the Committee any termination of membership made in accordance with this Article or Article 13 and the Committee may, if it allows the appeal, reinstate the Member.

Ongoing Rights and Obligations:

67. Except for Provisional Members who are not elected to membership of the Club in accordance to Article 8, expelled members remain liable for all fees and subscriptions due at the time that membership ceases and shall not be entitled to a refund of any fee or subscription paid, unless otherwise determined by the Committee;
68. The provisions of this Article will not prejudice any right of the club to recover all arrears including fees or subscriptions for the current year;
69. Any Member who ceases to be a Member of the club shall not have any ongoing right or interest in or title to any property of the club; and
70. The provisions of this Article apply equally to Life Members.

Article 13. Discipline, Suspension and Expulsion of Members

71. Subject to these Articles, if the Committee is of the opinion that a member has refused or neglected to comply with these Articles, or has been guilty of conduct unbecoming a member and of such a nature that in the eyes of Club members and the public brings the Club into disrepute, or is likely to do so, the Committee may by resolution:
- a. Suspend that member from membership of the Club for a specified period; or
 - b. Instigate proceedings to expel that member from the Club; or
 - c. Fine that member an amount not exceeding $500; or
 - d. Apply a reprimand and/or a suspended sentence to that member.
72. A resolution of the Committee under this Article does not take effect unless:
- a. At a meeting held in accordance with this Article, the committee confirms the resolution; and
 - b. If the member exercises a right of appeal to the Club under this Article, the Committee confirms the resolution in accordance with this Article.
73. A meeting of the Committee to confirm or revoke a resolution passed under this Article must be held not earlier than 14 days, and not later than 28 days, after notice has been given to the member in accordance with this Article.
74. For the purposes of giving notice in accordance with this Article, the Secretary must, as soon as practicable, cause to be given to the member a written notice:
- a. Setting out the resolution of the Committee and the grounds on which it is based; and
 - b. Stating that the member, and/or his or her representative, may address the Committee, call witnesses and present evidence at a meeting to be held, not earlier than 14 days and not later than 28 days after the notice has been given to that member; and
 - c. Stating the date, place and time of that meeting; and
 - d. Informing the member that he or she may do one or both of the following:
 - i. Attend that meeting, in accordance with this Article; or
 - ii. Give to the Committee before the date of that meeting a written statement seeking the revocation of the resolution; and also;
 - iii. Informing the member that, if at that meeting, the Committee confirms the resolution, he or she may, not later than 72 hours after that meeting, give the Secretary a notice to the effect that he or she wishes to appeal to the Club in general meeting against the resolution.

75. At a meeting of the Committee to confirm or revoke a resolution passed under this Article, the committee must:
- a. Give the member, and/or his or her representative, an opportunity to be heard, call and question witnesses and answer questions;
 - b. Give due consideration to any written statement submitted by the member; and
 - c. Determine by resolution whether to confirm or to revoke the resolution.
76. If at the meeting of the Committee, the Committee confirms the resolution, the member may, not later than 72 hours after that meeting, give the Secretary written notice to the effect that they wish to appeal to the Club in general meeting against the resolution.
77. If the Secretary receives a notice under this Article, he or she must notify the Committee and the Committee must convene a Special General Meeting of the Club to be held within 28 days after the date on which the Secretary received the notice.
78. At a Special General Meeting of the Club convened under this Article:
- a. No business other than the question of the appeal may be conducted;
 - b. The Committee may place before the meeting details of the grounds for the resolution and the reasons for the passing of the resolution;
 - c. The member, and/or his or her representative, must be given an opportunity to be heard, call and question witnesses and answer questions; and
 - d. The members present must vote by secret ballot on the question whether the resolution should be confirmed or revoked.
79. The resolution is confirmed if not less than two-thirds of the general body of members present vote to support the resolution. In any other case, the resolution is revoked.

Article 14. Disputes and Mediation

80. The grievance procedure set out in this article applies to disputes under these Articles between:
- a. A member and another member; or
 - b. A member and the Club.
81. The parties to the dispute must meet and discuss the matter in dispute, and, if possible, resolve the dispute within 14 days after the dispute comes to the attention of all of the parties.

82. If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute at the meeting, or if a party fails to attend that meeting, then the parties must, within 10 days, hold a meeting in the presence of a mediator.
83. The mediator must be:
 - a. A person chosen by agreement between the parties; or
 - b. In the absence of agreement:
 - i. In the case of a dispute between a member and another member, a person appointed by the Committee of the Club; or
 - ii. In the case of a dispute between a member and the Club, a person who is a mediator appointed or employed by the Department of Justice, Dispute Settlement Centre of Victoria.
84. A member of the Club can be a mediator.
85. The mediator cannot be a member who is a party to the dispute.
86. The parties to the dispute must, in good faith, attempt to settle the dispute by mediation.
87. The mediator, in conducting the mediation, must:
88. Give the parties to the mediation process every opportunity to be heard; and
89. Allow due consideration by all parties of any written statement submitted by any party; and
90. Ensure that natural justice is accorded to the parties to the dispute throughout the mediation process.
91. The mediator must not determine the dispute.
92. If the mediation process does not result in the dispute being resolved, the parties may seek to resolve the dispute in accordance with the Act or otherwise at law.

Article 15. Annual General Meeting

93. The Committee shall determine the date, time and place of the Annual General Meeting of the Club.
94. The notice convening the Annual General Meeting must specify that the meeting is an Annual General Meeting.
95. The ordinary business of the Annual General Meeting shall be:
 - a. To confirm the minutes of the previous annual general meeting and of any other General Meeting held since that meeting; and
 - b. To receive from the committee reports upon the transactions and other activities of the Club during the last financial year; and
 - c. To elect Officers of the Club and the Ordinary Members of the Committee.

96. The Annual General Meeting may conduct any special business of which notice has been given in accordance with these Articles.

Article 16. Special General Meetings

97. In addition to the Annual General Meeting, other General Meetings may be held in the same year.
98. All General Meetings other than the Annual General Meeting are Special General Meetings.
99. The committee may, whenever it thinks fit, convene a Special General Meeting of the Club.
100. If more than 15 months would have elapsed between Annual General Meetings, the Committee must convene a Special General Meeting before the expiration of that period.
101. The Committee must, on the request in writing of eligible members representing not less than 5 per cent of the total number of eligible members, convene a Special General Meeting of the Club.
102. The request for a Special General Meeting must:
- a. State the objects of the meeting; and
 - b. Be signed by the members requesting the meeting and note their unique member ID; and
 - c. Be sent to the address of the Secretary.
103. If the Committee does not cause a Special General Meeting to be held within one month after the date on which the request is sent to the address of the Secretary, the members making the request, or any of them, may convene a Special General Meeting to be held not later than three months after that date.
104. If a Special General Meeting is convened by members in accordance with this Article it must be convened in the same manner so far as possible as a meeting convened by the Committee and all reasonable expenses incurred in convening the special general meeting must be refunded by the Club to the persons incurring the expenses.

Article 17. Special Business

105. All business that is conducted at a Special General Meeting and all business that is conducted at the Annual General Meeting, except for business conducted under these Articles as ordinary business of the Annual General Meeting, is deemed to be Special Business.

Article 18. Notice of General Meetings

106. The Secretary of the Club, at least 14 days, or if a Special Resolution has been proposed at least 21 days, before the date fixed for holding a General Meeting of the Club, must cause to be sent to each eligible member of the Club, a notice stating the place, date and time of the meeting and the nature of the business to be conducted at the meeting.
107. Notice may be sent:
- a. By prepaid post to the address appearing in the Register of Members; or
 - b. If the member duly authorises, by e-mail to the address supplied by that member.
108. No business other than that set out in the notice convening the meeting may be conducted at the meeting.
109. A member intending to bring any business before a General Meeting shall notify the Secretary in writing or by electronic transmission of that business. The Secretary must include that business in the notice calling the next General Meeting.

Article 19. Quorums at General Meetings
